GEORGIA ALZAPIEDI

TRAVEL AND LIFESTYLE BLOGGER

I'm a writer with a passion for life and travel, With a background in education, and a BA in English Literature, I created BritVoyage as a way to share my experiences in the UK, and help others enjoy travel and life here too. I'm an Essex local, but you won't see me on TOWIE. I'm more likely to be walking my dog, watching sports, or visiting a cultural attraction... with my live in boyfriend of course.
